Ben Ecclestone Masterclasses

Join us for five masterclasses delivered by Ben Ecclestone during the start of 2017.

We will cover a separate subject each workshop, all delivered in Ben's relaxed style. We will learn by Illustration, explanation, demonstration and finally producing our own piece of work in the style of the day.

Each masterclass is limited to 12 spaces to ensure individual tuition.

Each Workshop is £15 if booked individually .

Book all five for £70.

Booking in advance is essential, so book via:

February 14th

Palette Knife Techniques using Gouache

Discovering the versatile qualities of Gouache and the unusual effects of using a palette knife.

March 14th

Landscapes of the Mind

Exploring Landscapes by unleashing the unexpected and unplanned through the experimenting use of pigment.

April 11th

Working With Gouache, Pen & Ink

Looking at this combination of mediums by studying popular artists of 1940's & 50's. It has potential for both small scale paintings and intimate illustrations.

May 16th

Transcription Drawings

Studying the work of Master Draftsman Henri Matisse and his approach to using line and space. We will look at his approach drawing the pose, shape and features of his models. Working progressively through drawings we will work to producing a drawing that will stand a piece of art in its own right.

June 13th

Wet Pastels and Acrylic Inks Revisited

By popular demand a follow on workshop from last years Wet Pastels Masterclass. We will explore further techniques and it will serve as a great starter class to anyone who has never worked in West Pastel or Acrylic Inks.
